

WANT TO GET MORE JAZZED AND FOCUSED IN YOUR BUSINESS?

Choose to chart your journey!

Remember the enthusiasm and passion you felt when you first started your business? Think back to those big dreams and that feeling of being “juiced” with possibility and opportunity. It fueled your vision, planning and actions.

Let’s come together to keep the energy going, to plan intentionally, be 100% accountable and get infused with inspiration to take consistent action with a clear focused road map.

Ask yourself: I wonder.....

- How big could I dare to dream if I had a defined road map and the genuine support of a team of respected, like-minded women beside me?
- How much farther could I go if I had a trusted group who was authentically invested in me taking steps to get out of my own way? A group who would willingly celebrate my accomplishments with me?

Inspired Living Business Plan Ideal Clients:

- Are hungry to grow and learn new business practices and strategies in an inspirational, safe and trusted environment.
- Business owners who know what they do not know; realize where they stop themselves with their limited range of thinking and want to make better choices personally and professionally.
- Have willingness, curiosity, and openness as to how they can improve in the authenticity of their marketing messages, invitation and implementation processes and their service models.
- Are prepared to be accountable for what they say, what they do and follow through with commitments.
- Possess an openness to discover their unique gifts, skills and talents which contribute to their ideal clients and the successful business systems and strategies.
- Share their wisdom, expertise, knowledge and background easily and willingly support each group member.

Each group is a unique place and space to refuel, get clear on what is most important, to be guided as to which is the best directions to take and get nourished with inspiration and encouragement.

We meet in groups of 8 at various locations throughout the lower mainland.

Each group meets 2 times a month for 2 hours in a guided, structured, safe, intimate atmosphere to experience the genuine power of dreaming big, planning and letting go of stories that keep us small. It is magical to witness each business in receipt of the blessed value of unconditional support by each team of mentors.

Imagine how inspired you will be with expanded resources and peers to tap into. Your opportunity to hear priceless feedback and gain fresh new perspectives will help you to see beyond your own limited range of vision.
